Day 1

Luxor East Bank Highlights

Upon arrival at Luxor Airport, your private guide will greet you and escort you to explore the East Bank's iconic sites in a comfortable A/C vehicle.

Karnak Temple

The world's largest temple complex, Karnak spans 247 acres and was built over 2,000 years for worshiping Amun, Mut, and Khonsu. Marvel at its awe-inspiring columns, obelisks, and sacred lake.

Lunch

Enjoy a delicious meal at a top-rated Nile-view restaurant before checking into your 5-star hotel.

Luxor Temple

Built by Amenhotep III and Ramses II, this stunning temple played a key role in the Opet Festival, reuniting the Theban triad (Amun, Mut, and Khonsu) in grand celebrations.

Evening

Return to your hotel for a relaxing overnight stay.

*Meals: Lunch
Accommodation: Luxor 5-star hotel*

Day 2

Luxor West Bank – Land of Pharaohs

After breakfast, your Egyptologist guide will take you to explore the legendary West Bank:

Valley of the Kings

The sacred burial ground of New Kingdom pharaohs (1570–1050 BC), this UNESCO-listed valley houses 63 royal tombs, including Tutankhamun’s. it’s a masterpiece of ancient engineering and artistry.

Hatshepsut Temple

Carved into towering limestone cliffs at Deir el-Bahari, this stunning mortuary temple honors Queen Hatshepsut—Egypt’s most powerful female pharaoh. Its terraced design blends seamlessly with the natural landscape.

Lunch with a Nile View

Enjoy a scenic boat ride to an island restaurant for a delicious meal overlooking the river.

Colossi of Memnon

Stand before the twin 18-meter (60 ft) statues of Amenhotep III, each carved from a single 1,000-ton quartzite block. These towering sentinels once guarded the pharaoh’s lost temple.

Evening

Return to your hotel for overnight stay.

*Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Accommodation: Luxor 5-star hotel*

Day 3

Sacred Temples of Dendera & Abydos

After breakfast, embark on a fascinating journey north with your Egyptologist to explore two of Egypt's most remarkable temples:

Dendera Temple Complex

Step into the stunning "Castle of Hathor," Egypt's best-preserved temple dedicated to the goddess of love and joy. Marvel at its vibrant ceiling astronomies, hidden crypts, and the famous Dendera light reliefs.

Abydos Temple

Discover Seti I's masterpiece, completed by Ramses II, featuring:

- The extraordinary 7-shrine sanctuary
- The mysterious Osireion underground chamber
- Some of Egypt's finest bas-reliefs
