Day 1

What Your Day Looks Like

Your day begins with a private pick-up from your hotel in Marsa Alam. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the scenic drive through the Eastern Desert as you head toward one of Egypt’s most legendary cities—Luxor.

First Stop: Valley of the Kings

Beneath the arid hills on Luxor’s West Bank lies the Valley of the Kings, the final resting place of Egypt's most powerful pharaohs. Venture inside elaborately decorated tombs, including those of Ramses II, Seti I, and the boy king Tutankhamun. It's a place of stories, mystery, and majesty that will leave you in awe.

Temple of Queen Hatshepsut

Next, you'll visit the awe-inspiring temple of Queen Hatshepsut, carved into the cliffs at Deir el-Bahari. Known as one of ancient Egypt's most powerful female rulers, her temple is an architectural wonder and a tribute to her remarkable legacy.

Colossi of Memnon

Stop for photos at the Colossi of Memnon, two towering statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III that have stood guard for more than 3,000 years. These giants are all that remain of what was once a massive temple complex.

Lunch with a View

Time to refuel! You'll hop on a short boat ride across the Nile to a peaceful island, where a tasty lunch awaits—complete with river views and a breeze.

Karnak Temple Complex

Your final stop is the incredible Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious sites in the world. Walk through the Avenue of Sphinxes, gaze up at massive columns in the Hypostyle Hall, and explore a place that was built and expanded over 2,000 years.

Evening – Return to Marsa Alam

After a full day of discovery, we'll drive you back to your hotel in Marsa Alam, where you can kick back and relive the magic of ancient Egypt.
