Giza Pyramids and Old Cairo Tour Itinerary

If one were to visit Cairo just once, it would be to just see the remarkable Giza Pyramids, which are the sole surviving of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. as you stand in front of these massive stone masterpieces, you will be struck by the weight of time inscribed in each one. The mysterious Sphinx is nearby, as he peers over the pyramids with its inscrutable face set on the future.

Following that, we'll visit Old Cairo, where it’s filled with history to the prime. We'll see historic Islamic and Coptic treasures before concluding the day at the famed Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where Cairo citizens' heartbeat comes to life. Here , you can find Spices, jewelry, and textiles, among other uniquely Egyptian products, abound in these narrow lanes and street vendor stalls. You should bargain with local vendors if you want the complete experience in order to enjoy the genuine feeling
