Day 1

Port Said to Cairo – Pyramids & Ancient Wonders

Your adventure begins as a "Your Egypt Tours" representative meets you at Port Said and escorts you to Cairo in a private air-conditioned vehicle (approx. 3-hour drive).

Giza Pyramids Complex

Step into a world of ancient grandeur as you explore the legendary Giza Plateau, a UNESCO World Heritage Site dating back to 2700 B.C.

The Great Pyramid of Khufu
The last surviving wonder of the ancient world, this 147-meter marvel was the tallest man-made structure for 3,800 years. Built with 2.3 million limestone blocks (weighing 6 million tons), it stands as a testament to pharaonic ingenuity.

The Great Sphinx

Carved from a single limestone mass, this mystical guardian bears the face of Pharaoh Khafre (2558–2532 B.C.) and the body of a lion, watching over the Giza complex for millennia.

Valley Temple

A sacred mortuary site (2600 B.C.) where priests performed mummification rituals before royal burials in the pyramids.

Grand Egyptian Museum (Optional Visit)

A modern treasure trove showcasing 5,000 years of history, including:

? The Hanging Obelisk & Colossal Statue of Ramses II

? 10 Statues of Senusert & the Grand Staircase

? Ptolemaic Royal Sculptures & King Merenptah's Victory Column

? The Grand Atrium and exclusive VIP artifacts (ask us for access details)

Lunch at a Local Restaurant

Savor authentic Egyptian flavors before continuing your journey.

Saqqara Step Pyramid

Travel back to the dawn of pyramid-building (27th century B.C.) at the world's oldest large-scale stone structure. Designed by Genius Architect Imhotep for Pharaoh Djoser, this 62-meter, six-tiered pyramid marked the beginning of Egypt's architectural golden age.

Evening: 5-Star Hotel in Cairo
