Luxor's Eastern Bank

First the Valley of the Kings. You walk into tombs cut deep into the mountain. The colors on the walls still look fresh after 3,000 years.

Then Hatshepsut Temple. Three floors carved into the cliff. It doesn't look like any other temple in Egypt. A queen built this to touch the sky.

Next the Colossi of Memnon. Two giant statues sitting alone in a field. They've been watching the sun come up since before Rome was born.

Last stop Karnak Temple. Big. Huge. You walk through halls of columns that feel like a forest made of stone.

Then you go back to the Dahabiya. Say goodbye to the crew. Take one last look at the Nile.
