Día 1

Giza Pyramids, Old Cairo & Bazaar

If you were to visit Cairo for only one reason, it should be the awe-inspiring Giza Pyramids, the sole survivors of the Ancient World's Seven Wonders. Standing before these colossal stone marvels, you'll feel the weight of time etched in each stone. And just nearby stands the enigmatic Sphinx, eternally gazing forward with its cryptic expression, safeguarding the pyramids.

After that, we will head to a journey into Old Cairo, a district steeped in history. We will visit the ancient Islamic and Coptic masterpieces then the day concludes with a sensory overload at the legendary Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where Cairo's daily rhythm comes alive. Here, amidst the labyrinth of narrow alleys and lively stalls, you'll find spices, jewelry, textiles, and unique treasures that reflect Egypt's vibrant culture. To truly engage in Egyptian commerce, be sure to barter with the local vendors—an experience as authentic as the treasures themselves.
