Day 1

Itinerary

Discover the ancient winding city streets of Cairo, Egypt, the cradle of civilization. Take a tour of Islamic Cairo with Your Egypt Tours visiting historic Fatimid era gateways to the old city as well as mosques, houses, and palaces while passing through local markets. A memorable visit will be walking through the famous Souq of Khan al Khalili where vendors sell all kinds of wares for your perusal. You will visit Cairo's two enduring ramparts: Bab Al-Nasr (Gate of Victory), Bab Al-Futuh (Gate of Conquests) as well as Al Moez Street which is regarded as an open-air Islamic museum. On top of the mosques, you will find a lot of towers with different styles and heights. The wooden lattice windows(arabesque) of the traditional mansions are worth lots of photos. Then, go through Cairo's only remaining medieval covered market. See the Mosque of Al-Hakim, on a fascinating walking tour through Islamic Cairo. Your Cairo Photography Walking Tour ends at the famous coffee shop in Cairo called El Fishawy where you can have a local drink and take more photos. In the end, you will be taken back to the hotel.
