tour.overview

Discover the majestic new home of ancient Egypt's greatest treasures at the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) — a place where history comes alive. Start with your expert Egyptologist guide who leads you into vast galleries filled with more than half a million artefacts. Stand in awe before the legendary golden mask of Tutankhamun and wander among his restored burial treasures, once hidden for millennia.

Move on to the monumental statue of Ramses II, towering over you in perfect detail, and admire the precise craft of his throne-room and temple artworks. Stroll through the expansive Grand Atrium, bathed in natural light, where pharaonic architecture meets modern museum design.

You'll have time after the guided visit to explore at your own pace — perhaps linger by the priceless jewellery displays, gaze at intricately carved statues of ancient kings, or simply soak in the ambience of this world-class cultural landmark. Whether you're a first-time visitor or a seasoned Egypt enthusiast, this tour delivers an unforgettable experience of Egypt's 5,000-plus years of civilisation.
