Day 1

Itinerary

Join Your Egypt Tours for a journey through the timeless wonders of Cairo and Giza. Accompanied by your personal Egyptologist guide, explore the world's most iconic ancient monuments and a state-of-the-art museum that brings pharaonic history to life.

Your day begins at the legendary Giza Plateau, a UNESCO World Heritage site and home to the Great Pyramids and the enigmatic Sphinx. After a captivating introduction to their history and significance, you will have ample time to explore, take photographs, and absorb the majestic atmosphere.

Optional experiences include entering one of the pyramids or taking a memorable camel ride across the sands (additional cost).

Following the plateau, visit the Valley Temple to learn about ancient Egyptian beliefs and the intricate mummification process.

The tour continues to the spectacular Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), the world's largest museum dedicated to a single civilization. Your guide will lead you through its unparalleled collection, with a special focus on the complete treasures of King Tutankhamun. Marvel at his golden death mask, royal chariots, jewelry, and other exquisite artifacts. You will also have time to explore at your leisure.

Conclude your extraordinary day with a serene felucca ride on the Nile. Relax in comfort aboard this traditional wooden sailboat, enjoying panoramic views of the Cairo skyline as the sun sets—a perfect moment for unforgettable photographs.

After your tranquil journey on the river, you will be comfortably transferred back to your hotel to enjoy the evening at leisure.
