Day 1

Itinerary

No journey to Egypt is complete without standing before the timeless majesty of the Great Pyramids and the enigmatic Sphinx. With Your Egypt Tours, enjoy a private, tailored exploration of these ancient wonders at your own pace, guided by an expert Egyptologist.

Your day begins at the awe-inspiring Giza Plateau. Explore this ancient necropolis, home to the iconic Pyramids of Khufu (Cheops), Khafre (Chephren), and Menkaure (Mykerinus)—the last surviving wonder of the ancient world. Your guide will provide a captivating introduction to their history and architecture. You will have the opportunity to enter one of the pyramids (additional ticket) for an unforgettable experience. Afterwards, capture the classic photograph of the three pyramids rising from the desert with the Cairo skyline in the distance.

A short drive across the plateau brings you face-to-face with the Great Sphinx. This monumental statue, with the body of a lion and the head of a pharaoh, has guarded the plateau for millennia. Your guide will share the enduring myths and mysteries surrounding this iconic symbol.

In the afternoon, delve into the broader narrative of Egypt's history at the acclaimed National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC). This state-of-the-art museum offers a sweeping journey through the ages. Your guide will highlight key artifacts that illustrate the evolution of Egyptian civilization.

A highlight of the visit is the Royal Mummies Hall, home to a reverent and scientifically fascinating display of 22 royal mummies, including that of the great Pharaoh Ramses II. Learn about the sophisticated art of mummification and the stories of these ancient rulers.

After a day immersed in antiquity, relax as you are comfortably transferred back to your hotel.
