Day 1

Day Excursion to Giza Pyramids Complex

A representative from "Your Egypt Tours" awaits you at Port Said, ushering you through your 48-hour adventure to Cairo. The journey unfolds over a 3-hour drive to Cairo, where you'll immerse yourself in a private tour, exploring:

The Giza Pyramids complex a timeless repository housing the celestial triad of Pyramids, six smaller pyramids, the Great Sphinx, and the Valley Temple, all dating back to the 4th dynasty around 2400 years B.C.

The Great Pyramid of King Khufu, a surviving marvel of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, dating back to 2750 BC. Renowned for its colossal size and intricate chambers, the Great Pyramid's inner sanctum, like the king's chamber, captivates with its mysterious allure.

The Great Sphinx, a timeless creation fashioned from a single limestone block, stands as the largest man-made statue on earth, dedicated to King Khafre and embodying a mystical presence.

The Grand Egyptian Museum serves as a gateway to the cosmic creations of ancient Egypt, spanning 5000 years of innovation and artistic brilliance. Uncover archaeological treasures like the Hanging Obelisk, King Ramses II Statue, 10 Statues of King Senusert, the Grand Staircase, Statues of Ptolemaic Royalty, the Victory Column of King Merneptah, the Epic Royal Regalia, and the Grand Atrium & Gift Show. A VIP ticket unlocks access to additional artifacts.

Lunchtime beckons at a local restaurant before resuming your private tour to Saqqara Step Pyramid, an architectural marvel crafted by Imhotep for Pharaoh Djoser during the 27th century B.C. Comprising six steps and reaching a height of 62 meters, it stands as the earliest large-scale cut stone construction on earth. The day concludes with a transfer to a 5-star hotel in Cairo for an overnight stay.

Meals: Lunch | Overnight: Cairo Hotel

Day 2

Cairo City Tour

Post-breakfast checkout leads to the continuation of your private tour, exploring Cairo's highlights:

The Egyptian Museum, established in 1901 AD, stands as the inaugural museum in Cairo, housing captivating artifacts and monuments from the illustrious ancient Egyptian civilization.

Lunchtime unfolds at a local Cairo restaurant, preceding a visit to Salah El Din Citadel, a majestic fortress erected during Salah ad-Din's reign from 1176 to 1182 AD. It served as Egypt's seat of government until the 1860s, harboring treasures within museums and mosques.

Mohamed Ali Mosque, constructed between 1830 and 1848 AD, is hailed as "The Alabaster Mosque" due to its walls crafted from pure alabaster. Nestled inside the citadel, it stands as a magical exemplar of Ottoman architecture.

The National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC), open to the public since 2017, promises a journey through the glorious artifacts and mummies spanning more than 4000 years of ancient Egyptian history.

Al-Muizz, a resplendent street of divine treasures erected in the 10th century AD, resides beside the enchanting Khan El Khalili Bazaar, a legendary masterpiece built between 1382 and 1389 AD. Concluding the day, the return journey to your cruise awaits in Port Said.
