Start your Egypt budget tour by visiting the city's most iconic sites: the Giza Pyramids, the majestic Sphinx, and the Grand Egyptian Museum, home to an extraordinary collection of treasures from Egypt's rich history.

This budget-friendly Egypt tour offers a smooth and memorable introduction to your journey. Overnight in Cairo.

Day 2

Sakkara and Saladin Citadel

After breakfast at your hotel we drive to Sakkara, the ancient "Necropolis" of the Old Kingdom's capital, Memphis, where you will explore several pyramids and tombs, including the famous Step Pyramid, the oldest known pyramid in Egypt. Next we visit the Cairo Saladin Citadel which was built to display the Alabaster Mosque as its main attraction. This day is a highlight of your Egypt budget tour offering rich historical and cultural experiences. The group will spend the night in Cairo.

Day 3

Private Alexandria Tour

Take a fascinating private tour to Alexandria from Cairo with your own Egyptologist guide. The second-largest city in Egypt, Alexandria has a Mediterranean atmosphere and is famous for its Roman remains. On this Egypt budget tour, you will enjoy personalized attention, allowing you to spend as much time as you like at each site.

Founded by Alexander the Great in 312 B.C., Alexandria was the capital of Greece-Roman Egypt. Your first stop is the catacombs of Kom el-Shuqqafa, a Roman burial site showcasing the fusion of Egyptian and Roman art and architecture, including the tomb and Caracalla Hall. Above ground visit Pompey Pillar, an 82-foot granite column built to honor Emperor Diocletian, followed by the Roman amphitheater, one of Egypt's best-preserved Roman sites, including remnants of a Roman street and homes.

After lunch, explore the famous Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a modern architectural masterpiece that houses a copy of every book published in the world, exhibitions on Egypt's history, and rare antique books. This day is a highlight among our Cheap Egypt tours, offering a unique blend of ancient and modern Alexandria.

Day 4
