Day 2

Giza | Pyramids, Sphinx and The Grand Egyptian Museum

After breakfast, journey to the famous Giza Plateau and experience the rich history of ancient Egypt. Your first stop will be at the Great Pyramids of Giza, one of the remaining Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Marvel at these stunning monuments that have stood proudly for thousands of years. Following your guided tour of the pyramids, you will be able to partake in optional activities to enhance your experience at an additional cost.

Optional Activities:

Roam the pyramid area on camelback

Explore the inner chambers of the pyramids.

Following your visit to the Pyramids of Giza, you will make your way to the mysterious Sphinx that stands guard nearby. Stand before this ancient monument and enjoy a picture-perfect panoramic view of the pyramids and Sphinx. Afterward, enter the Valley Temple and discover the secrets of mummifications.

After your tour of the Giza Plateau, prepare to be amazed. The Grand Egyptian Museum is the largest museum in the world devoted to a single civilization—and you'll have front-row access to its most breathtaking treasures. With over 100,000 artifacts, this architectural masterpiece showcases the glory of Egypt's 7,000-year-old legacy.

Some of the museum highlights you'll explore include:

Tutankhamun's golden treasures – His legendary gilded coffins command the main hall

Statue of King Ramses II – Standing tall in timeless majesty

Victory Column of King Merneptah – Echoes of triumph carved in stone

Solar Boat of King Khufu – A perfectly preserved vessel of the afterlife

10 Statues of King Senusert – An awe-inspiring gallery of royalty

Your expert guide will ensure every artifact, statue, and gallery tells a vivid story tailored to your interests.

At the end of your tour, return to Cairo for a relaxing overnight stay.

Along the way, you will have the chance to visit the Papyrus Institute. You will see how this famous artwork is made and even be able to purchase genuine items. Alternatively, you may partake in an optional night activity before returning to your hotel.

Optional Night Activity:

Overnight: Hotel in Cairo | Meals: Breakfast
