Day 2

Temples of Glory: Abu Simbel & the Soul of the South

Wake up early, grab your breakfast box, and hit the road to explore one of Egypt's most jaw-dropping sights.

Abu Simbel Temples

A true masterpiece of devotion and engineering, the Temples of Abu Simbel were carved into the mountainside during the reign of Ramses II. One temple honors his legacy, the other pays tribute to his beloved Queen Nefertari. These colossal monuments are both powerful and poetic—don't forget your camera!

After returning to Aswan, enjoy a local lunch and then board a comfortable first-class train headed for Luxor, the ancient city of Thebes.

Check in at a 5? hotel and get ready for your final day of magic.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Overnight: Luxor

Day 3

Luxor’s Timeless Treasures & Return to Hurghada

Fuel up with breakfast and head out for a day filled with spellbinding sites.

Valley of the Kings

Venture into the legendary Valley of the Kings, where the tombs of ancient rulers lie carved into the rock. Explore vibrant wall paintings and step into the final resting places of names like Ramses II, Seti I, and even Tutankhamun.

Hatshepsut Temple

Behold the elegant Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, rising dramatically against the cliffs. This unique monument honors one of Egypt’s most powerful female rulers.

Colossi of Memnon

Snap a photo with the towering Colossi of Memnon, two giant statues that have stood watch over Luxor for more than 3,000 years.

Lunch Time

Enjoy a relaxed lunch at a charming local restaurant before heading to your final stop:

Karnak Temple Complex

Enter the vast spiritual heart of ancient Egypt—the Karnak Temples. Walk the Avenue of Sphinxes, marvel at the giant columns of the Hypostyle Hall, and feel the divine energy that once radiated from the Temple of Amun.

After the tour, we'll drive you back to your hotel in Hurghada with your camera full and your heart fuller.
