Day itinerary
We are time-traveling to ancient Egypt and discover its fascinating history through the well-known Giza Pyramids and Sphinx. Khufu's Pyramid, also known as the Great Pyramid of Giza, was built around 4500 years ago, which is also the largest and grandest of the three pyramids on the plateau.

And once you stand at the base of the Great Pyramid you will understand its enormous enormity. Between the two, Khafre is smaller but nonetheless spectacular, with remnants of ancient casing stones on its pinnacle, offering a glimpse of how things were back then. The smallest of them all, Menkaure's Pyramid, contains an old masterpiece.

You will come across a statue of a lion's body and a Pharaoh's head as we proceed toward the Sphinx. The statue's shape and grandeur is surely to awe anyone. It is assumed to have been built during Pharaoh Khafre's reign, as his remaining pieces are still shrouded in mystery, particularly what happened to its nose.

Furthermore, you will discover smaller pyramids and tombs around the surrounding area, it will provide you with more knowledge into the ancient Egyptians' burial customs.There is also the Valley Temple, which is located near to the Sphinx and teaches visitors about the ancient civilization's rites and beliefs.

With this journey we offer more than just a trip back in time. it's an appreciation for the brilliance and ambition that created ancient Egypt. These monuments have witnessed the rise and fall of many civilizations throughout history, and they continue to awestruck everyone. So , whether you are an admirer of history or architecture, or even if you are fascinated by the bygone era, these fascinating sightseeing will create a lasting impression on your mind.
