Giza Pyramids and Sphinx Tour Itinerary

We're about to head back in time to explore ancient Egypt, where we'll learn about the mind blowing history through the great Giza Pyramids and Sphinx. Khufu's Pyramid, it is popularly known as the Great Pyramid of Giza. It was built approximately 4500 years ago and is the largest and grandest of the three pyramids on the plateau. And once you stand at the base of the Great Pyramid, you will realize its size. Khafre as it seems is the smallest of the two, yet it is nevertheless impressive, with relics of ancient casing stones on its peak, providing a look into the past. The smallest of them all, Menkaure's Pyramid, houses an ancient masterpiece.

Then when we make our way toward the Sphinx, you will encounter a statue that features the head of a Pharaoh and the body of a lion. The statue's shape and majesty are likely to impress everyone. It is considered to have been erected during Pharaoh Khafre's reign, while the fate of his remaining parts, particularly the nose, remains unknown.

Additionally, as we go one you will find smaller pyramids and tombs in the area around you, which will enlighten you on the burial habits of the ancient Egyptians. Also The Valley Temple, located near the Sphinx, informs visitors about the ancient civilization's ceremonies and beliefs.

This adventure has more than just an escape back in time. It's an appreciation to the talent and ambition that built ancient Egypt. and the fact that these masterpieces have seen the rise and fall of a bunch of civilizations throughout history, and they still continue to amaze visitors. With Egypt, be sure that whether you are a fan of history or architecture, or simply captivated by the past, these interesting sites will leave an indelible impact on your memory
